

WOMAN WHO DAZZLES COURT OF APPEALS WITH A NEW HAT

Mrs. Anna K. Daniel Going to Manage Her Own Case
Involving $20,000.

NO USE FOR LAWYERS.

Handsome Widow Will Wear
a Stunning Tailor Made
Gown in Court.

Mrs. Anna K. Daniel, a widow, wealthy and handsome, is preparing to go before the Court of Appeals in person on Oct. 21, to argue a suit against herself in which $20,000 is involved. Mrs. Daniel is a business woman and full of fighting spirit. She looks upon lawyers as a superfluous, and that is why she is going to set aside all precedents of the Court of Appeals and manage her own case before that distinguished tribunal. It will be the first time in the history of the court that a woman litigant ever undertook such a thing.

"I have studied my case thoroughly," she says, "and know my rights, and know exactly what I want the court to do in my behalf. Incidentally, I might add that I am having a new tailored suit made and have bought a new hat to wear in court."

It is her own home that the plucky and self-reliant widow is fighting to save. Her residence is at No. 128 West Eighty-second street. The United States Trust Company holds a mortgage on the property and has obtained a judgment in foreclosure proceedings. Mrs. Daniel is now seeking to have that judgment set aside.

LOST HER CASE WHEN SHE HAD A LAWYER.

"I employed a lawyer in the beginning," she said, "but lost my case in the Supreme Court, and on appeal. Then I decided I would take matters into my own hands and dispense with an attorney. I went before the higher court in person on Oct. 2, and got an order for the reopening of the case. The new hearing is set for the 21st."

"My contention is that a judgment was obtained against me some time ago and that I settled it by certain payments I made. Now I assert that there can be no new judgment, as the matter is res adjudicata. It is on that ground I am attacking the present judgment."

Mrs. Daniel is the widow of James Daniel, a stove manufacturer. She was born in Toronto, Canada, where her father was a wealthy banker. Former Assemblyman Frank K. Johnston, a New York lawyer, is her brother and has assisted her to some extent in the preparation of her case, but has not acted as her counsel in the regular sense of the term.

Mrs. Daniel's sharpness of wit and habit of speaking very plainly, indeed, when she feels that her rights are not being recognized, has already caused her to clash with various justices of the Supreme Court before whom she has brought minor motions in the mortgage foreclosure proceedings.

SHE TELLS THE COURT WHAT IS WHICH

One day last week she appeared in Special Term, Part I, to press a motion to have the trust company adjudged in contempt. Her stay, granted by the Court of Appeals when the case was reopened, forbade the trust company to take any further steps in the case until five days after the rehearing on appeal should have been decided. The only exception mentioned in the order was the granting, to the trust company, of the privilege of advertising an adjournment of the sale of the property.

Mrs. Daniel contended that, in advertising such a postponement the trust company fixed a future date on which the sale would take place. She said they could not do that, arguing that they were violating the order of the Court of Appeals by not postponing the sale indefinitely.

She made some rather caustic remarks concerning the manner in which justice had been meted out to her in the Supreme Court and Justice Greenbaum threatened to commit her for contempt if she spoke again as she had done. He then denied her motion with $10 costs.

"I will appeal from his decision," said Mrs. Daniel, as she left the courtroom, her fighting spirit flashing in her eyes. She says that after her experiences as her own lawyer she now favors the "recall of judges."

DENIES LA FOLLETTE WILL SUPPORT WILSON.

Lawyer Partner of Senator Contradicts Statement by Spreckles League.

MADISON, Wis., Oct. 8.—Alfred T. Rogers, a lawyer partner of Senator La Follette and Republican National Committeeman for Wisconsin, when shown a Chicago dispatch saying that the Wisconsin National Progressive Republican League had issued a statement that Senator La Follette had declared himself for Wilson, gave out the following: "Any statement that Senator La Follette has declared for Wilson is absolutely false and without any foundation. Furthermore, let it be understood once and for all that Senator La Follette will make all announcements which he gives out regarding issues and candidates through his own magazine and from the public platform."

Signed "ALFRED T. ROGERS," CHICAGO, Oct. 8.—The Senator Robert La Follette of Wisconsin has declared himself for Wilson and will take an active part in the Democratic campaign in a statement issued today by the Wisconsin National Progressive Republican League. The league, headed by Rudolph Spreckles, the San Francisco millionaire, has just opened a branch office here. Besides the statement that La Follette has declared for Wilson is a list of prominent Republicans who have turned down both Taft and Roosevelt.

Allice Coleman, a nee Coleman, living at No. 215 West One Hundred and Thirty-third street, was arrested by Detective McManis charged with the larceny of four diamond rings, worth $2,000, from Mrs. Charlotte Hopkins of Washington, D. C. Mrs. Hopkins is a widow of a United States Army officer. Mrs. Hopkins engaged the girl to work in the home of her son-in-law, Dr. F. J. Ferguson, of No. 130 East Sixty-second street. The rings were taken from Mrs. Hopkins' jewelry case. Magistrate Krotz in Harlem Court today held the girl at the Grand Jury. Two rings, valued at $1,000, were in her possession.

GOLD DUST makes pot and pan spick and span

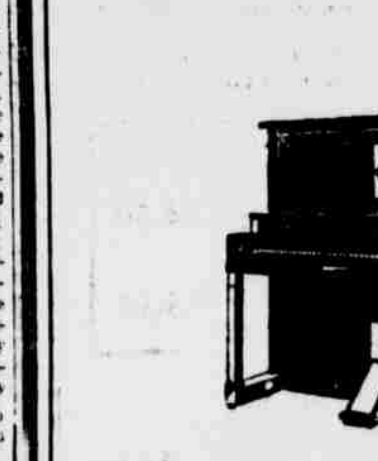

Pots and pans collect more dirt and grease than any other cooking utensil. The one best way of cleaning them is to use Gold Dust. Gold Dust not only takes off the outer surface, but digs deep after germs and hidden particles, and makes them as spotlessly clean and sanitary as when new.

If you want your pots and pans so bright you can see your face in them—your pots and kettles spotless and germ-proof, use Gold Dust in cleaning. It will do the work, too, in half the time of the ordinary cleanser—and save most of your labor. Gold Dust does the bulk of the work alone; you merely assist it.
